

Facilities Management Sector

“The only way to predict the future is to have power to shape the future.”

Eric Hoffer

Facilities Management is often described as one of the fastest growing “hidden industries” in the UK. The sector is incredibly diverse, including core Facilities Management skills, such as contract negotiation and management, alongside more specialist areas that a facilities contractor could be expected to provide like cleaning and security.

Industry Qualifications

IQ is a nationally regulated awarding organisation committed to raising standards in vocational education. We believe in premium quality, thinking differently and above all, in fairness and transparency, in everything we do.

Our Facilities Management Qualifications

These QCF qualifications cover the essentials of working in Facilities Management and are assessed by portfolio. They are designed to be taken by a broad range of learners, with the ability to specialise in different fields through optional units, such as waste management or maintenance.

All of our qualifications can be offered by any private training provider, FE college or employer that becomes an IQ centre (providing they meet our quality requirements) and our fees include registration, certification and outgoing postage.

We also offer a number of qualifications which may complement your Facilities Management provision, including Spectator Safety, Providing Security Services, Fire Safety, First Aid and Health & Safety.

With the Facilities Management sector continuing to grow and a large proportion of the workforce reaching retirement age there is an urgent need to bring more young people into the sector and apprenticeships are increasingly being recognised as the solution.

By enrolling on an apprenticeship, students can see the practical application of the skills that they are learning and implement them directly into the workplace. The inclusion of core English and mathematics skills and employee rights and responsibilities, means that apprentices often end up as some of the most well rounded and highly-prized members of a workforce.

	Skills	Knowledge	Functional Skills
Intermediate Level Apprenticeship in Facilities Services (£105)	IQ Level 2 Certificate in Facilities Services Practice	IQ Level 2 Certificate in Facilities Services Principles	IQ Functional Skills Qualification in Mathematics at Level 1 or 2 & IQ Functional Skills Qualification in English at Level 1 or 2
